MESSAGE FROM STEVE MASON

CCC Board President

CCC Members,

There have been several items that have been brought to the attention of the Board Members. These items were discussed at the last Board Meeting and I would just like to send out a note to inform and remind our Membership of these items.

First: We have a bar and restaurant on site. There is a sign posted as you pull into the parking area that clearly states "No one can bring their own Alcohol" into the Campbellsville Country Club. This is a violation of the State ABC Laws and could result in a fine or loss of Alcohol License for the club. If anyone has a request for a specific label of Beer, Wine or Liquor, please contact Bill McCoullough (Bar manager) or Brian Pickard and we will be glad to order it and put it on the Bar Menu.

Secondly: The conduct in and around the bar area. Please remember to be respectful to all the members with both your actions and words. It is a bar, and we all need to enjoy it in the proper manner with fun and good fellowship.

Last: We will be posting a sign in the bar that states, "Must Be 21 to drink Alcohol, We ID".

We are in the early summer months and golf season is in full swing. The golf course looks GREAT! The pool also looks nice. We look forward to a fun and enjoyable summer for all members. If anyone has any questions please free to contact myself or another Board Member.

Sincerely,

Steven Mason
