CCC Members,

The Board would like update the members has we get ready to start the 2018 Golf Season at CCC. Currently we are at 218 members. We really need your help in recruiting members to CCC. Our goal is to reach 235 members or exceed that number, we need your help recruiting new members! There are several things that we would like to remind our members as start this golf season:

1. Please follow the instructions for using the Golf Carts. Try to observe the 90 degree rule. If you are asked to keep carts on the cart path, please do so. Most importantly, keep the carts away from the Greens, please do not pull up beside the Greens.
2. Proper attire is required. NO blue jeans, No Blue Jean shorts, must have a collared shirt, NO - T shirts.
3. Contact the pro shop to make a Tee Time. We also ask that you please provide the Pro Shop with your cell phone number and email address so that moving forward, you will be able to make your tee time on line and we can inform you of any delays and changes in times.
4. The Pool is open. We are selling Pool memberships. When our members bring a guest, please remember that there is a guest fee of $5.00/per person, stop in the proshop and take care of the guest fee.

Please check the Campbellsville Country Club Facebook Page and web-site for upcoming events. We hope that the level of participation will increase among members in the activities, bring a friend or two, we need more participation.
